

Day 1 – Innovation

Wednesday 9 May 2007

7.30am	Registration Desk Opens
8.30–9.00am	Welcome and Intro: GOVIS President
9.00–9.45am	MINISTER OF IT ADDRESS: Hon David Cunliffe, Minister of IT
9.45–10.30am	KEYNOTE: Changing the face of the PC Dr Quentin Stafford-Fraser, Executive Director, Ndiyo
10.30–11.00am	MORNING TEA SPONSORED BY CITRIX SYSTEMS
	Microsoft Theatre	New Zealand Post Room 1	New Zealand Post Room 2	Symantec Room
11.00–11.45am	Building an Innovation Network Grant Kearney – InnovationXchange network	Global trends and innovations within Business Analytic Information solutions for Government Anthony Stanton, Oracle	Addressing the Challenges of a maturing workforce Ross Pearce, IBM NZ Ltd	Building the foundations for innovation Andrew Stephens, Optimation
11.45–12.30pm	Enabling Your Business with Innovative Building Design Jonathan Jepson, Vodafone NZ	Information Visualisation as a way to increase team comprehension and collaboration Steve Dickinson, Abstract Engineering Ltd	Webcasting Solutions for Government Innovation Moira Lafayette, Sonic Foundry, Inc.	Stir-Fried Chicken & Enterprise Architecture & Federated Enterprise Architecture Clifton Chan, State Services Commission
12.30–1.30pm	LUNCH SPONSORED BY CITRIX SYSTEMS
1.30–2.15pm	Partners in Innovation – Microsoft New Zealand Innovation Centre for the Public Sector Chris Brice, Microsoft New Zealand	Connect with our culture – the story of NZLive.com Sarah Jones, Ministry of Culture and Heritage	E-learning: ICT Technology revolutionizes the production of training courses Miranda Welch, Statistics New Zealand and Nolen Smith, Flexible Learning	Applying ICT innovatively in small, growing organisations Sanjiv Jetly and Nigel Brunson, Securities Commission
2.15–3.00pm	Real Service Real Time Ralph McDermott & Tony Standen New Plymouth District Council (Bearingpoint Innovation Awards – Technology 2005 – Finalists)	Virtual Presentation Jimmy Wales founder of Wikipedia, explains how Wikipedia's collaborative systems works, and why it succeeds. Mena Trott is the 28 year old founder of leading blog software company Six Apart. She explores the personal side of blogging.	Using management styles to retain creativity & innovation Tara Hunt	Using intellectual property to encourage innovation in ICT Mark Hargreaves, Simpson Grierson
3.00–3.30pm	AFTERNOON TEA SPONSORED BY CITRIX SYSTEMS
3.30–4.15pm	Sometimes a Great Idea is not enough Richard Dove Canterbury District Health Board (Bearingpoint Innovation Awards – Technology 2005 – Finalist)	Wikis and e-initiatives wiki Kaylene Murdoch and Matt Lane, State Services Commission	Pattern Thinking, Forced Innovation Technique and Deliberate Evolution Gary Bartlett, Productivity Solutions International Ltd	A demonstration of how innovations in technology are helping governments make the world a safer place Alistair Johnson, Intergraph Corporation New Zealand
4.15–5.00pm	Innovation close to home – why wouldn't you consider a local solution? Graeme Solloway, Hans Frauenlob: Industry Capability Network & Panel	Blogging in the State Services – Panel Discussion Jason Ryan, State Services Commission Che Tibby, DoL Hayden Green, Ministry of Education Matthew Lane, State Services Commission	Everyone scratches their own itch: Innovation and open thinking in government Chris Daish, Catalyst IT Ltd	Virtual Presentation Nicholas Negroponte former Director of the MIT Media Lab, talks about the challenges of getting a $100 laptop produced. Sir Ken Robinson , author and leading expert on innovation and human resources makes his case for creating an education system that nurtures creativity, rather than undermining it.
5.00–7.00pm	WELCOME FUNCTION SPONSORED BY CHECK POINT SOFTWARE TECHNOLOGIES

Please Note: The details of the programme may be subject to change.

Day 2 – e-Government

Thursday 10 May 2007

8.00am	Registration Desk Opens
8.45–9.00am	Welcome and Intro: GOVIS President
9.00–9.45am	KEYNOTE: The Updated e-Government Strategy Laurence Millar (TBC), State Services Commission
9.45–10.30am	KEYNOTE: Democracy in Transition Don Lenihan, CEO Crossing Boundaries National Council
10.30–11.00am	MORNING TEA SPONSORED BY SUN MICROSYSTEMS
	Microsoft Theatre	New Zealand Post Room 1	New Zealand Post Room 2	Symantec Room
11.00–11.45am	Connected Government: The New Platform for Services, Innovation and Sustainability Martin Stewart-Weeks, Cisco	Taking advantage of the Government Shared Network Edwin Bruce, State Services Commission	Developing and Delivering an ISSP Danny Mollan, Ministry of Justice and Leone Purvis, Harmony Consulting	Ruby on Rails Michael Koziarski
11.45–12.30pm	Defragmenting e-Government Richard Norman, Victoria University	No Transformation without Authentication Gavin Valentine, State Services Commission	Implementing an electronic repository for taxpayer records at Inland Revenue Duncan Watson and Dominic Green, Inland Revenue Department	Search Elyssa Timmer, State Services Commission
12.30–1.30pm	LUNCH SPONSORED BY EDS
1.30–2.15pm	Data mining for customer understanding Peter Monk, Fly Buys	If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times: A case study on a Public Sector Directory Reece Kohatu, State Services Commission	Use of technology to achieve more efficient, effective and robust tendering Jolene Kelly, Jolene Kelly Ltd and Andrew McLean, Expert Procurement Solutions	Putting the "User" back into UAT Andrew McDowell and Dr Gordon Paynter, Equinox Ltd
2.15–3.00pm	Privacy and Sovereignty Marie Shroff, Privacy Commissioner	The Plunket Technology Pathway – taking a strategic goal and shaping it into reality Alistair Vickers, Royal NZ Plunket Society	Streamlining Contract Management Processes June Ralston, NZAID	Planning and implementing an improved workflow and publishing processes for Te Ara Ross Somerville, Te Ara, Ministry for Culture and Heritage
3.00–3.30pm	AFTERNOON TEA
3.30–4.15pm	Business Rules in Government Anthony Bettanin, Ruleburst	NZ SAMS – a SAML v2.0 case study Colin Wallis, State Services Commission	Dancing with Bears Conrad McDonnell, McDonnell Group	Families on The Couch: heading online to hear from New Zealand Stephen Blyth, Families Commission
4.15–5.00pm	Virtual Presentation Dick Hardt founder and CEO, Sxip Identity delivers a compelling and dynamic introduction on Identity 2.0. Lawrence Lessig Professor of Law, Stanford Law School, describes the Free Culture movement, and the support it needs from Free Software.	XBRL – the revolution in business reporting? Regan Andrew, Inland Revenue Department	The Future of e-Government Interoperability Framework (e-GIF) Trudy Rankin, State Services Commission	Collaboration across government: Public Sector Intranet (PSI) Shared Workspace Sara Barham, State Services Commission Gerard Bone, State Services Commission
5.00–7.00pm	HAPPY HOUR SPONSORED BY CITYLINK

Please Note: The details of the programme may be subject to change.

Day 3 – Futures

Friday 11 May 2007

8.00am	Registration Desk Opens
8.45–9.00am	Welcome and Intro: GOVIS President
9.00–9.45am	KEYNOTE: Creating Passionate Users Tara Hunt, Co-founder of Citizen Agency
9.45–10.30am	KEYNOTE: Strategies for internet citizens Jon Udell, Lead analyst and chief blogger, InfoWorld <small>SPONSORED BY MICROSOFT</small>
10.30–11.00am	MORNING TEA <small>SPONSORED BY OSISOFT</small>
	Microsoft Theatre	New Zealand Post Room 1	New Zealand Post Room 2	Symantec Room
11.00–11.45am	Incremental Strategy – eHealth in New Zealand Brendan Kelly, Ministry of Health	Practical Change Management Richard Doig and Michelle White, Accident Compensation Corporation	Building and maintaining an open-source web-harvesting application Gordon Paynter, National Library of New Zealand	Using Information Management principles to support ICT Keitha Booth, State Services Commission
11.45–12.30pm	E is for enabled, encouraged and empowered Laura Sommer, State Services Commission	Playing the Beanies Game Paul Willyams, Deloitte	2006 New Zealand Census of Population Dwellings: Innovation in the analysis and dissemination of data Chris Toohey, Statistics NZ	Fat, thin and in-between. Applications delivery and desktop management Damien Toman, Gen-i
12.30–1.30pm	LUNCH <small>SPONSORED BY OSISOFT</small>
1.30–2.15pm	Democratizing knowledge: Social Networking for the Enterprise Greg Stone, Microsoft Corporate	Monitoring and Quality Assurance of Major ICT-enabled Business Projects in Government Grant Avery, State Services Commission	Standards for electronic recordkeeping: frameworks for innovation and evidence Evelyn Wareham, Archives New Zealand	ReadyNet – Local Government's response to Emergency Management Jim Higgins and Matthew Nolan, Local Government Online
2.15–3.00pm	Interoperability at The Touch Points – The Education Sector's Approach Jonathan Shennan, Ministry of Education	Trusted Computing/Digital Rights Management Hugh McPhail, State Services Commission	Appointments, Appointments, Appointments thousands of the damn things Terry Baker, Ministry of Social Development	Government Use of ICT Survey 2006 results Gareth Meech, Statistics New Zealand
3.00–3.30pm	AFTERNOON TEA
3.30–4.15pm	Connecting with your public in the Information Age Bruce Russell, Christchurch Polytechnic Institute of Technology	Exbiblio – the Paper Renaissance Dr Quentin Stafford-Fraser	Parliament – wired for WireLess Greg Sloane, BRIX Group Limited	Web 2.0 and the .govt.nz Jason Ryan, State Services Commission
4.15–5.00pm	Delivering public value Steve Griffin, EDS New Zealand	BeSTGRID – Broadband enabled Science and Technology GRID Paul Bonnington, University of Auckland	Imaging Forms – The Statistics New Zealand Experience Rob Farnsworth, Statistics New Zealand	Object Registry Derek Rayner, State Services Commission
5.00–6.00pm	GUEST SPEAKER: Making sense of the world by having fun with statistics. Hans Rosling, Professor of International Health, Karolinska Institute, Stockholm
6.00–Late	GOVIS CONFERENCE DINNER <small>SPONSORED BY VODAFONE</small>

Please Note: The details of the programme may be subject to change.